When making plans to travel abroad, many people find there's not enough time to obtain a passport required for overseas travel. Please allow yourself plenty of time to make the necessary arrangements, but if you find yourself in a bind, do not hesitate to return a Privacy Act release form to my Mobile office so that I may contact the U.S. Department of State on your behalf
.

Everything you need to know about passports can be found by visiting the following website:

Passport Services