

Tragedy in Haiti:

The tragic earthquake in Haiti has generated tremendous interest from Americans wishing to learn about relatives in that country as well as those wanting to help with recovery.

To offer assistance:

To learn about organizations participating in relief programs for the Haitian people, visit the White House web site:

<http://www.whitehouse.gov/haitiearthquake>

To learn about Individuals in Haiti:

The U.S. State Department has established a task force to assist those seeking information about the welfare and status of individuals in Haiti.

The State Department's web site is www.state.gov .

You can also visit this State Department link for more information:

http://travel.state.gov/travel/cis_pa_tw/pa/pa_haiti_info_number.html

People in the U.S. or Canada with information or inquiries about U.S. citizens in Haiti may reach the U.S. State Department's Haiti Task Force at 1- 888-407-4747. Outside of the U.S. and Canada, call 202-501-4444.

The U.S. Department of State has established an e-mail address for people who are trying to contact their U.S. citizen friends and relatives in Haiti. Please send your inquiries to: Haiti-Earthquake@State.Gov and include the following information:

- The full name, date of birth and passport information (if known) of the persons in Haiti you are trying to contact.

- Their contact information in Haiti; telephone numbers, email address, hotel name or address (if known)

- Your name and contact information, and your relationship to the person in Haiti (parent, spouse, friend etc.)

- Any special or emergency circumstances.

