

MOBILE - U.S. Rep. Jo Bonner, R-Alabama, today issued the following statement announcing the return to the air of his weekly congressional television show:

“After a hiatus of several months during this year’s campaign season, I am pleased to announce that my weekly television show, ‘The Congressional Report,’ will be returning to the air on Sunday, November 21, 2004. As in past years, Mobile’s CBS affiliate, WKRG, has generously agreed to continue broadcasting these weekly reports each Sunday morning at 10:00 a.m.

“I am honored that Rep. Roy Blunt (R-MO), the Majority Whip for the House of Representatives, has agreed to be my guest on this week’s show. During his career in Congress, Rep. Blunt has proven to be one of the most effective members of the House leadership and has been a tremendous friend and ally to me as we have considered legislation which impacts the families of south Alabama

“On Sunday, November 28, my guests will be Major David Waite, Area Commander of the Salvation Army for Mobile and Baldwin Counties, Alabama State Senator Vivian Figures, and former Alabama State Senator Ann Bedsole.

These three will discuss the role of the Salvation Army in south Alabama and will pay particular attention to the many types of assistance offered by the organization during the holiday season.

“I am also pleased to announce that, as with my weekly radio show, all episodes of ‘The Congressional Report’ taped in the House recording studios in Washington, D.C., will be posted to my website in digital format. I have always strived to offer as many ways as possible for my constituents to keep up with the latest events in our nation’s capital, and the Internet offers even greater opportunities to do so.

Two shows taped prior to the hiatus, featuring former Kansas Senator Bob Dole and Reps.

Jeff

Miller (R-FL) and Joe Wilson (R-SC), have already been posted to my site for viewing.

I would encourage everyone to visit <http://bonner.house.gov> to view these broadcasts and look at all of the other information I have made available for my constituents.”
